Strategic Insights For Meaningful Innovations

Red Carnelian symbolizes clarity and momentum the very forces that transform potential ideas into scalable innovation.

Red Carnelian Consulting is a strategic consulting partner helping organisations improve innovation ROI, reduce growth risk and strengthen commercial predictability using behavioural intelligence.

Founder:
Shilpa Mhatre

• Consumer Products Strategic Leadership
• IICA Certified Independent Director
• Board Advisory

Why Red Carnelian

Many innovations lose market place relevance because scaling begins too early, listening happens too late or critical qualitative signals are missed.

Red Carnelian bridges this gap.

We partner with senior leaders and decision-makers to translate nuanced consumer insights, behaviours into clear & confident Go / No-Go decisions.

- De-risk innovation before scale
- Accelerate time-to-market
- Improve consumer adoption and repeat engagement
- Build differentiated product and service experiences
- Create stronger commercial traction and sustainable growth
- Safeguard capital
